

We wanted to write you a letter

To whom it may concern...

We wanted to write you a letter, even though we know that's wrong

But, every time we tried, it turned into this song

Turned into this song.

So here is our letter, words made to rhyme

The reason for their poetry - memory over time

Memory over time.

We wanted to ask you a question, which you may think absurd

Are you able to recall every word you've heard?

Every word you've heard.

But we don't need words, just the ideas they convey

And we can remember them for ever and a day

For ever and a day.

We wanted to write you a letter, but it is better to hear it in song

Words that are only read, often, soon are gone

Often, soon are gone.

The reason for this letter, is that we hope you'll soon agree

The aim of education is long-term memory

Long-term memory.
